

Steve Lusk Wins The PCCC 2010 Men's Golf Championship

Steve Lusk

Steve Lusk won the 65th edition of the Ponca City Country Club's Men's Golf Championship played on August 14th and 15th. He followed his opening round of one-over-par 73 with an even par score of 72 on Sunday to win the title for the second year in a row. His final round included 4 birdies and 4 bogeys. Lusk's total score was 7 strokes better than runner-up Kris Parton.

Steve was excited after play was completed. "It feels great to win the championship again this year. I have been busy with work and with my children's summer activities and have only played about 3 or 4 full rounds of golf this summer. I wasn't sure how solid my game was going to be this weekend. I am very pleased and honored to be the 2010 PCCC Men's Golf Champion!"

Phil Knight won the Senior Club Championship for players 50 years of age and older with rounds of 79-78-157. Don Rowland was crowned the Senior Net Champion with net scores of 68-69-137.
